Anglais - Corrigé des Exercices supplémentaires – Séquence 2

Ex. 1 : Mets ces phrases au prétérit.

- We are going to London by bus. We were going to London by bus.
- Who are you talking to ? Who were you talking to ?
- They are happy, aren't they ? They were happy, weren't they ?
- They aren't playing in the garden. They weren't playing in the garden.
- He calls his mother. He called his mother.
- Susan doesn't visit Castle Rock. Susan didn't visit Castle Rock.
- Do you decide to visit Edinburgh ? Did you decide to visit Edinburgh ?

Ex. 2 : Mets ces phrases - conjuguées au prétérit simple - aux formes interrogative puis négative :

- He brought a new mirror. Did he bring a new mirror ? He didn't bring a new mirror.
- We bought tickets to go to the theatre. Did we buy tickets to go to the theatre ? We didn't buy tickets to go to the theatre.
- They saw a famous singer. Did they see a famous singer ? They didn't see a famous singer.
- I decided to go to Scotland last year. Did I decide to go to Scotland last year ? I didn't decide to go to Scotland last year.
- He painted this painting one year ago. Did he paint this painting one year ago ? He didn't paint this painting one year ago.
- They ate in the dining-room. Did they eat in the dining-room ? They didn't eat in the dining-room.

Ex. 3 : Complète les phrases suivantes avec l'adjectif possessif qui convient.

- She has blue eyes. → her eyes are blue.
- This car has blue doors. → its doors are blue.
- He has dirty trousers (pantalon) . → his trousers are dirty.
- They don't have good ideas. → their ideas aren't good.
- Tom has nice parents. → his parents are nice.

Ex. 4 : Remplace les groupes nominaux soulignés par le pronom possessif qui convient.

- His towel is dry, my towel is wet. His towel is dry, mine is wet.
- Our parents are very nice, their parents often shout. Our parents are very nice, theirs often shout.
- I do not have my umbrella, do you have your umbrella ? I do not have my umbrella, do you have yours ?
- His father is an architect. her father is a doctor. His father is an architect. Hers is a doctor.
- My television is new. My brother's television is old. My television is new. His is old.
- Our teacher is a woman. Our teacher is a man. Our teacher is a woman. Ours is a man.

Ex. 5 : Complète avec des question-tags puis des short answers :

She likes travelling, doesn't she ? Yes, she does.

He has got long hair, hasn't he ? Yes, he has.

They had breakfast at the hotel, hadn't they ? No, they hadn't.

We didn't miss the train, did we ? No, we didn't.

They are playing the piano together, aren't they ? Yes, they are.

Your sister can't play tennis, can she ? No, she can't.

Ex. 6 : Traduis les phrases suivantes

- Hier, nous étions à la maison. Yesterday, we were at home.
- Nous avons mangé dans la salle à manger. We ate in the dining-room.
- Ils ont vu l'arrêt d'autobus, n'est-ce pas ? They saw the bus stop, didn't they ?
- Il y avait un concert à Londres lundi dernier. There was a concert in London last Monday.
- Où étiez-vous hier ? Where were you yesterday ?
- Le policier a acheté une nouvelle voiture. The policeman bought a new car.

Ex. 7 : Déchiffre les phrases suivantes :

[ʃi: ɪz tɔ:l] : She is tall

[hi: laɪks spɔ:t] : he likes sport

[ðə θi:f ɪz ɪn maɪ bɛd] : the thief is is my bed

[ʃi: baɪz fu:d] : she buys food

Ex . 8 Le 's de la possession : The Smith family

Sauras-tu reconstituer cet arbre généalogique de la famille Smith selon les indications que l'on te donne ?

Tu peux te chronométrer si tu veux !!!

The architect's name is Harry	kate is Eric's aunt
Robert's grandfather's name is William	One of John's nephews is called Eric
Kate's husband is a doctor	Harry married Mary
Mary has got two boys	Susan is an only child
Lucie is Susan's cousin.	Helen's father is a pianist
Susan's mother is a nurse	Jane is a grandmother
John has two daughters	Sarah is John's wife
Jane's daughter-in-law is a teacher.	Patrick is Jane's son-in-law
Harry and John are brothers	John is Jane's son.
The baker is married to Harry	Kate has two brothers.
Patrick is Susan's father	Eric and Robert are brothers
Helen and Lucie are sisters.
William has two sons and a daughter

Vocabulary
A son : un fils	A daughter : une fille
A mother : une mère	a father : un père
A brother : un frère	a sister : une soeur
A son-in-law : le beau-fils / le gendre	A daughter-in-law : une belle-fille
A mother-in law : une belle-mère	A father-in-law : un beau-père
A nephew : un neveu	a niece : une nièce
A grandmother : une grand-mère	a grandfather : un grand-père

